Hardyal Dhindsa
Police and Crime Commissioner for Derbyshire
My relationship with StreetGames

Background

• Approached by StreetGames two years ago

• Aim was to understand how sport can have a positive impact on youth crime and ASB

• Positive relationships built with the Head of Sport & Community safety

Resulting in...

• A successful innovation fund bid for £263k
• Me chairing the national crime, prevention and sport programme
My commitment to young people in Derbyshire

Election Promise:
Working with partners to keep young people out of the criminal justice system

Objective 5:
Working with young people, including those who have been either victims of crime or offenders, to understand their needs and prevent them becoming involved in criminal activities
Looking to the future...

Through a collaborative multi force/PCC approach...

Submission to the Police Transformation Fund to address key issues such as:

• Evidence based policing

• Structured and targeted commissioning and grants – aligned to local police and crime plans

• Community Remedy & positive activity
My challenge to you...
